Re: Rudersdal v. Harris, 18-cv-11072

Hon. Judge Torres:

As you are aware, my firm Rolinski Law Group is currently counsel of record for all Plaintiffs in the above-captioned matter. Pursuant to I(B) and I(C) of Your Honor's Individual Practices in Civil Cases, the Plaintiffs respectfully request that the initial pretrial conference for this case currently scheduled for January 29, 2019 be rescheduled for a later date at the Court's convenience to allow Plaintiffs to complete service of process.

The reason for the request is that Plaintiffs require several more weeks in order to effectuate international service of process on the sixteen Defendants who reside outside of the United States. There have been no previous requests to reschedule the initial scheduling conference or extend any current deadlines in this case. We have not conferred with counsel regarding Plaintiff's request herein because contact with opposing counsel is not established due to Defendants not yet having been served. Service will be attempted and completed in as timely a manner as possible in light of the additional efforts and procedures required to serve international defendants.

We greatly appreciate Your Honor's time and consideration in this matter, and should the Court need any further information we are available at the Court's convenience.

GRANTED. The conference scheduled for January 29, 2019 is ADJOURNED to March 14, 2019, at 11:00 a.m. By March 7, 2019, the parties shall file their joint letter and proposed case management plan.

SO ORDERED.

New York, New York

ANALISA TORRES
United States District Judge
